

I want the government to respect my first wishes of not being called which is why I want the no-call list law kept as strong as it is.